1. Seller

DramaFruits is a service published by NJ INVEST, SASU (société par actions simplifiée unipersonnelle) with a share capital of 1,00 €, 994 860 229 R.C.S. Marseille, SIRET 994 860 229 00016, VAT FR18994860229, registered office: 6 rue Barthet, 13010 Marseille, France. Contact: contact@dramafruits.com. See also the legal notice.

2. Service sold

Access to DramaFruits (website, Chrome extension and editing service) as a monthly or yearly subscription: Studio plan at €9.99 incl. VAT per month, Pro plan at €19.99 incl. VAT per month, Team plan at €39.99 incl. VAT per month; the yearly plan, offered in the My account area, costs ten times the monthly price (€99.90, €199.90 or €399.90 incl. VAT per year) (3 seats for Team: the holder and two invited members, each with their own account and a single active device). The content of the plans is described on the home page.

3. Account and personal use

The subscription is strictly personal and limited to one computer and one phone active at a time. Logging in from another computer logs out the previous one (including its Chrome extension); logging in from another phone replaces the previous one. Repeated device changes are considered account sharing. Sharing login details is forbidden and may lead to suspension of the account without refund.

4. Payment

Payment is made by card via Stripe, at the start of each period (monthly or yearly depending on the chosen plan). If a payment fails, new attempts are made; without payment, access is suspended at the end of the period already pa

5. Term and cancellation

No commitment. The subscription renews automatically at the end of each period (month or year). Cancellation can be done at any time from “My account → Cancel my subscription” and takes effect at the end of the paid period. No prorated refund is due for the current period, subject to the right of withdrawal (article 6) and to the law. For a yearly subscription, the subscriber is notified by email, between three months and one month before the end of the term, of the renewal date and of the possibility to cancel (art. L215-1 of the French Consumer Code).

5 bis. Free trial

A free trial of the Pro plan for 24 hours may be offered, once per person. A bank card is required to start it; nothing is charged during the trial. The subscriber can cancel at any time during the trial from “My account → Cancel my subscription”, at no cost. Without cancellation, the monthly Pro subscription starts automatically at the end of the 24 hours, at the price shown when the trial was started, and is then governed by these terms (including article 6). During the trial, the Pro training, the weekly coach and the monthly account review are not included. To prevent abuse, a trial is refused or canceled immediately if the account, email address, device, browser and connection, or the card have already been used for a trial, or if the card is prepaid; it is also not available with a temporary email address or through a VPN or server connection. No amount is charged in that case.

6. Right of withdrawal

The consumer has 14 days from subscribing to withdraw, without giving any reason (art. L221-18 of the French Consumer Code). This right does not apply to renewals of an ongoing subscription.

By ticking, before paying, the box accepting these terms, which refers to this article, the subscriber expressly requests access to the service right away, during the withdrawal period, and acknowledges that if they withdraw they will owe the price of the service provided until their decision. If they withdraw, DramaFruits therefore refunds the amount paid minus the price of the days elapsed since subscribing (subscription day included), calculated pro rata of the paid period (art. L221-25). Example: for a 30-day monthly subscription at €9.99, withdrawing on day 5 gives a refund of €8.32.

To withdraw: “Withdraw from the contract” link at the bottom of every page of the site, then the “Withdraw from the contract here” button (logged in to your account), or any unambiguous statement sent to contact@dramafruits.com (for example with the model form at the end of these terms). An acknowledgment of receipt is sent by email. Withdrawal immediately ends the subscription and access to the service. The refund is made to the payment method used, at the latest 14 days after the withdrawal decision is received.

6 bis. “7-day money-back” guarantee (discontinued)

The “7-day money-back” guarantee no longer applies to subscriptions whose first payment is made on or after 17 November 2026: they only benefit from the right of withdrawal provided in article 6. For subscriptions whose first payment was made before that date, the guarantee remains due under the following conditions: any new subscriber may request a full refund of their first payment within 7 days of that payment, from “My account”, if they have created at most one video with the service (a video means any episode that has been edited or whose clips have all been generated; an episode, its possible re-edits and subtitle corrections counting as a single video; for payments made before 15 November 2026, only edited episodes count), if no video made with the service has been published (payments made on or after 15 November 2026), if it is their first request and their very first payment. The refund is made to the payment method used, within 14 days at most after the request, and ends the subscription and access to the service. The guarantee may be refused in case of obvious abuse (multiple accounts, shared login details).

7. Referrals

A subscriber may refer other people. The referred person may receive a discount on their first payment, shown on the website when they sign up and applied automatically; it cannot be combined with another discount code. The reward (a credit deducted from the invoice) is only granted if the referred person subscribes to a paid plan and stays subscribed for 7 days without a refund. It is capped and may be canceled in case of fraud (fake accounts, self-referral).

7 bis. Affiliate program

Every subscriber has a personal affiliate link. When a person creates an account within 60 days of clicking this link and then subscribes to a paid plan, the affiliate receives a commission of 30% of the amount (incl. VAT) actually paid by that person, on each of their invoices for 12 months from their first payment. The rate and duration in force when the referred person signs up are shown in the “My earnings” area.

A commission becomes available 30 days after the corresponding payment. It is canceled or reduced in case of a refund, withdrawal or dispute on that payment. Available commissions are paid every month by bank transfer or PayPal, to the details provided by the affiliate, once their total reaches €20. At the affiliate's request, they can also be converted into a credit deducted from their next DramaFruits invoices.

Self-referral, multiple or fake accounts, paid advertising on the DramaFruits brand and any misleading presentation are excluded. Commissions obtained this way are canceled, and the publisher may close access to the program. The affiliate discloses the commercial nature of their links where required by law or by the platform. It is their responsibility to declare the amounts received to the tax and social security authorities. The publisher may change or end the program for the future, without affecting commissions already earned.

8. Third-party services

The service drives third-party tools (ChatGPT, Grok, TikTok) with the user's accounts, under their responsibility and in accordance with those services' terms. DramaFruits does not guarantee their availability.

9. Liability

No result (views, income) is guaranteed. The user is responsible for the videos they publish and must state that they are AI-generated.

10. Personal data

See the privacy policy. Applicable law: French law.
